(4) If a director has reasonable and probable grounds to believe that a child referred to in subsection (2) may be found in a place or premises and that the life or health of the child would be seriously and imminently endangered as a result of the time required to obtain an order under subsection (3) or (5), the director may, without an order and by force if necessary, enter that place or those premises for the purposes specified in subsection (3).

(5) If, in the opinion of the director, it would be impracticable to appear personally before a judge or justice of the peace to apply for an order in accordance with subsection (1) or (2), the director may make the application by telephone or other means of telecommunication to a judge of the Court or a justice of the peace.
